

Andrew Drayton

andrewdrayton@outlook.com • 609-760-3235

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Innovative COO and Co-founder with extensive experience in Web3, digital assets, and project management. Proven track record of driving multimillion-dollar projects, growing social media presence, and managing high-profile partnerships. Skilled in operations, finance, and team leadership.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

The Gallery of Digital Assets, Remote COO

2022-Current

- Spearheaded day-to-day operations for a leading Web3 company, overseeing all aspects of business development and execution
- Cultivated partnerships with elite artists and their management, resulting in high-profile digital art projects
- Drove secondary market sales to nearly 20,000 ETH ($66 million), showcasing strong market positioning and product value
- Expanded social media reach from 0 to over 100,000 followers, enhancing brand visibility and engagement
- Managed all legal and financial responsibilities, ensuring compliance and optimizing financial performance - Led and coordinated social media teams and contractors, maintaining cohesive brand messaging across platforms

The VOGU, Remote Co-founder

2021-2022

- Co-founded and launched the top-performing project on Ethereum by trading volume at time of release
- Partnered with renowned artist to create and develop innovative intellectual property in the digital space
- Conceptualized and implemented multiple metaverse experiences, driving user engagement and retention - Achieved over 8,000 ETH ($26 million) in secondary market volume, demonstrating strong market demand and project success
- Oversaw all aspects of project development, from ideation to execution and post-launch management

Aramark, Remote

2017-2021

Project Resource Coordinator

- Orchestrated planning and coordination for multiple start-up projects, ensuring timely completion within budget constraints
- Implemented Lean-based processes and change initiatives, driving operational excellence aligned with the company's annual operating plan
- Managed resource allocation and scheduling for new business start-ups, optimizing efficiency and cost-effectiveness
- Developed and maintained project timelines, budgets, and resource plans, ensuring clear communication with stakeholders - Collaborated with cross-functional teams to streamline mobilization framework and priorities, enhancing overall project success rates

Film Production, Los Angeles

2012-2016

Various

- Various Roles including Production Supervisor, Coordinator, and Property Master
- Progressed through multiple roles in film production, demonstrating versatility and industry knowledge
- As Production Supervisor:
 - Oversaw daily operations on set, managing crew of 50+ and coordinating with department heads
 - Facilitated communication between directors, producers, and crew to ensure smooth production flow
- As Production Coordinator:
 - Managed production schedules, call sheets, and crew logistics for projects with budgets ranging from a few thousand into the multi-millions
 - Liaised with vendors, locations, and talent representatives to coordinate all aspects of production
- As Property Master:
 - Sourced, created, and managed all on-screen props for various productions
 - Collaborated closely with art department and directors to ensure props aligned with creative vision

SKILLS

- Web3 Technologies and Digital Asset Management
- Project Management and Team Leadership
- Blockchain Development Team Coordination
- Financial Planning and Management
- Artist Relations and Partnership Development
- Social Media Strategy and Growth Hacking
- Operations Management and Process Optimization
- Film and Television Production
- Creative Direction for Artistic Projects

EDUCATION

Monmouth University, New Jersey

2007

- Bachelor of Science in Business Management